Charleston-Kanawha Housing Wins Two NAHRO Awards of Merit

Good Housekeeping Program Award

Charleston-Kanawha Housing received a $10,000 grant from the Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation to implement a Good Housekeeping program to educate residents on the importance of keeping a clean home. Residents residing in Charleston-Kanawha Housing properties with poor housekeeping inspection reports in danger of losing their assistance were given the option of participating in the Good Housekeeping program to correct these issues. Through this program, residents received cleaning supplies and literature during one-on-one sessions with a housekeeping coach.

Charleston-Kanawha Housing Administrative Building Award

Charleston-Kanawha Housing Authority purchased and renovated vacant buildings located in the 1500 block of West Washington Street, creating an office facility and relocating staff from four separate locations into one central location. The newly renovated facility is located on the city bus line and is fully handicap accessible. In addition to centralizing services for nearly 12,000 clients that visit these offices each year, the agency is investing in an area of the city much in need of revitalization. These two vacant structures had been an eyesore for a number of years and now stand out with a beautiful new façade.

These photos show the drastic transformation of the renovated buildings with the before photos on the left and the after on the right. The lobby was a brand new construction which connected the two buildings.
