

Charleston-Kanawha Housing Highlights

July 2007

Quarterly Meeting

Charleston-Kanawha Housing staff met with resident council officers from each development on Thursday, July 26, 2007. Officers from each resident council gave updates on activities and upcoming events and discussed any problems or concerns that they may have. Each manager also gave a report on issues that are being discussed during the monthly managers meeting held at each site.

Resident council meetings and the monthly managers meetings are highlighted in the Charleston-Kanawha Housing calendar that is mailed to each resident in December.

Presidents Volunteer Service Awards

The Littlepage Terrace Resident Management Corporation, LPTRMC, awarded 12 volunteers with the PRESIDENT'S VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARD, a national honor offered in recognition of volunteer service, on July 19, 2007 at the Family Enrichment Center. Rod Blackstone, Assistant to Mayor Danny Jones, handed out the certificates and pins.

LPTRMC is the first Resident Management Corporation to not only be awarded this award, it was also chosen to become a Certifying Organization for the award. Established in 2003, the award is available on an annual basis to individuals, groups and families who have met or exceeded requirements for volunteer service and have demonstrated exemplary citizenship through volunteering.

The President's Volunteer Service Award is an award for volunteer service that every American-from every age and every walk of life-can aspire to achieve. To be eligible to receive the award, individuals, families and groups submit a record of their annual volunteer service hours to participating Certifying Organizations, such as LPTRMC, that will verify the service and deliver the
